

MARSHALL REPUBLICAN

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE.

MARSHALL SALINE COUNTY MISSOURI THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1914.

NUMBER 3.

DEATHS

S. PERRY KEITH.

S. P. Keith, 49-years-old, deputy sheriff, was accidentally killed by a gun in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Riggins, Sunday morning about 10:30 o'clock in the sheriff's office at the court house.

The two deputies had been cleaning their guns; Mr. Keith had gotten through cleaning his, had put it into the scabbard, put on his overcoat and his left glove and started to go to his home. Having forgotten something he came back and had just entered the railing in the office, when the pistol in the hands of Mr. Riggins, which he had oiled, was accidentally discharged. The ball entered Mr. Keith's body in the left side over the upper part of the heart and he died a few moments after.

Prosecuting Attorney Meschede and Sheriff Sterling Price had both been in the office a few moments before and while the deputies were cleaning their pistols the officials were talking over some matters relative to the approaching term of criminal court. Mr. Meschede and Mr. Price had gone up stairs to the Prosecuting Attorney's office and had only been there a few moments, when the phone rang and Mr. Riggins told them to come quickly.

They found Mr. Keith lying on his back, his left arm extended on the floor and the right hand pressed to his side still clutching his glove. Mr. Riggins, who was standing near the desk had just finished oiling his pistol and started to close it, when it exploded.

The news of the unexpected and deplorable accident spread rapidly and the courthouse was soon filled with those wanting to be of assistance.

Coroner Dr. J. E. Connell was summoned and the coroner's inquest took place Sunday afternoon at about 2:30. Following is the verdict:

We the jury having been duly sworn and affirmed by Dr. J. E. Connell, Coroner of Saline county, Missouri, diligently to inquire and due presentment make, in what manner and by whom S. P. Keith whose dead body was found at the sheriff's office in the courthouse, Marshall, Missouri on the 4th day of January A. D. 1914, came to his death, after having heard the evidence, and upon full inquiry concerning the facts, and a careful examination of said body, do find that the deceased came to his death by a pistol shot accidentally discharged, while in the hands of John P. Riggins.

Given under our hands at Marshall in the county of Saline aforesaid, this 4th day of January A. D. 1914.

Jurors.

The remains were taken to the home of the deceased on West Marion and the funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2:30. The service was conducted by Eld. B. T. Wharton. The burial was in the Hazel Grove cemetery near Herndon, Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The deceased was born near Herndon 49 years ago and was the son of the late William Keith and has served in the capacity of deputy sheriff for the past seven years, was fearless in the discharge of duty and was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Besides the wife, who was a Miss Addie Light, Mr. Keith is survived by the following: Monroe Keith Payson, Okla.; J. H. and N. L. Keith of Nebraska; Rich Keith of Herndon, all brothers and one sister; Mrs. Mollie Mayne, Sweet Springs and two sons, Will Keith of Marshall and Emory Keith of Paola, Kas.

In his death the wife and children have lost a devoted husband and father and the county a splendid citizen and official. The tenderest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

MRS. ROBERT SWIFT.

James and Edwin Swift received a telegram Sunday evening at 8 o'clock saying that their mother, Mrs. Eliza Swift, had died that afternoon at 3 o'clock from pneumonia.

Mrs. Swift was born in Canada and had lived until the first day of January would have been 70 years old, and died at Mesa, Arizona, Sunday, December 28.

A WATCH PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, gave at their beautiful country home near Elmwood in honor of her sister, Miss Martha Harrison and cousins, Miss Elizabeth Harrison and Miss Sallie Maupin, a watch party, December 31, 1913. The spacious rooms were decorated in mid-winter scenes. Music and other amusements were introduced for the pleasures of the guests, later the young folks led the way to the dining room, where refreshments of ices, cakes, coffee and minis were served around the table beautifully decorated, in cut flowers, fruits and candies.

After supper was served by the hostess the young people adjourned to the yard to watch the old year out and New Year in.

The young folks numbered about fifty. Those from a distance were Miss Audrey Wood, Houstonia, Miss Stella and Will Winslow of Blosser, Miss Lura and William Hutcherson of near Marshall; Charles Maupin and Casabell brothers of Marshall; Mr. Levi Killon of Houstonia.

The young folks reported a good time and wished Mr. and Mrs. Smith a prosperous New Year.

W. V. Clark, formerly of Saline county, who has been at Fellows, Calif., for some time, informs us that he is now located at Stratford, Calif.

As we had an account of the death of Mr. Swift last week with the history of the family we will not repeat it.

The Record extends its sympathy to these children who have lost both parents in the short space of ten days.—Blackburn Record.

B. F. HESS.

B. Frank Hess, a prominent merchant at Wanamaker, in the southern part of the county, died at his home early Sunday morning, January 4; death was due to paralysis and pneumonia. He had been very ill for two weeks previous to his death.

Rev. A. Sterling of Jefferson City conducted funeral services at the Presbyterian church in Longwood Monday and interment was made in the cemetery there.

Mr. Hess was 47 years old. He is survived by his wife who was Miss Emma Johnson, a son aged 8, and a daughter aged 10 years. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Jacob Lower of near Longwood, and two brothers, R. J. Hess, living nine miles east of Houstonia, and Charles Hess of St. Louis.

GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Arrangements have all been made by our efficient Postmaster, C. B. Bacon, for the opening of our new government building, which will be held on Monday, January 12. In the afternoon the building will be thrown open for everybody to come and look over Marshall's elegant new post office, of which we are all so proud.

In the evening commencing at 8 o'clock, the following excellent program will be carried out.

Benediction—Rev. B. T. Wharton.

On account of changing the plans in putting marble on the side walls in the front office and the new office fixtures have not yet arrived. Mr. Bacon does not know just when he will be able to move into his new quarters, but hopes it will not be long.

GODMAN-BAZZELL

Wm. C. Godman a retired farmer and highly esteemed citizen of Marshall started the New Year of 1914 right, by taking unto himself a wife. He was married at 1:30 p. m. January the 1st at Slater to Mrs. Hebe Bazzell at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. Claud Stafford.

The newly-wedded couple came to Marshall on the 2:30 C. & A. train and are at home at the residence of the groom 455 South English.

The couple are receiving congratulations from a wide circle of friends.

STEARNS-GRAVELY

Mr. Claud Stearns and Miss Margaret Gravely both of Glasgow came to Marshall Saturday to get married. The ceremony was held by Justice Hiram Ferril at the Howard Hotel at 2:15 p. m. The couple will return to Glasgow tonight.

SWOPE-ROBINSON

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. O. M. Robinson, in Kansas City Miss Lorene Robinson, and Mr. Dee Swope of the Nelson neighborhood, were married January 1st, 1914 at 8:30 p. m.

The bride and groom will arrive in Marshall tonight, Saturday, enroute to their country home south of Nelson.

The groom who is a prosperous young farmer has his home in readiness and they will go immediately to house-keeping.

Mrs. Swope was reared in this city and has a great many friends here who will extend congratulations.

THOMAS-CONLEY.

Jas. Thomas of Slater and Miss Mattie Conley of Marshall were united in marriage at the recorder's office, Wednesday, January 7th at 10:30 a. m. Hiram Ferril was the officiating justice.

BROKE ANKLE.

T. C. Jones of west of town, has been confined to his home since Christmas as the result of a painful accident. Christmas eve, he went to Shackleford to meet a son and in making a mis-step broke the small bone in his ankle. He is able to get about the house on crutches and is getting along nicely.

WOMAN DROWNED IN WELL.

Mrs. Edward Woolery fell into a well on the T. O. Wade farm, 10 miles northeast of Houstonia, about 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, and drowned before help could reach her.

Woolery who is employed on the Wade farm, was not at his home when the fatal accident occurred. No one was present but the two little daughters, 3 and 5 years old. Neighbors were attracted by the screaming of the little ones.

The dead woman was subject to attacks of epilepsy and the supposition is that she was seized with an attack as she was drawing water from the well and while helpless fell in.

Coroner Dr. J. E. Connell was notified at 7 o'clock Monday evening but after hearing the facts knew there was no doubt about the drowning being accidental, did not go to hold an inquest.

A NEW CONCESSION.

J. A. Robinson, who has resided in Independence, Mo., the past 25 years, has moved to Marshall with his wife and son, who has entered the public school. Mr. Robinson has a new popcorn and peanut roaster concession which is attracting a good deal of attention. The machine cost $1,100 and is a very handsome and modern affair. Mr. Robinson and family are boarding at present with Mrs. Graves but will go to house-keeping as soon as they get a suitable location.

FROM P. S. REYNOLDS.

Los Angeles, Calif.

Marshall Republican, Marshall, Mo.

Dear sir: As I told you I would write to you after I got where I was going—I would have written before now but wanted to find a stopping place first. We are now located at the above address and will thank you very much to send our paper out here, we still like to get the news from Saline county, that we may know what is going on and to keep up with the changes that take place.

We have bought a grocery and dry goods store in the suburbs of Los Angeles, have a nice business and like it better every day, think we will be bucked up all o. k. as soon as we get every thing straightened out, we have been having quite a lot of rain in this section and every thing looks fine—Looks like March or April in Missouri.

Suppose you have had some winter in Missouri before this time. Well we like California fine so far, but can tell you more in a year or two. I had intended to write you a letter for publication but want have time this trip, but will send you one later. Hoping this will find you well I will close wishing for a merry Xmas and a happy New Year. Give my regards to all.

Your friend,

P. S. REYNOLDS.

BIRCH-SLOCUM.

Mr. Wilbur Birch, genial barber, with the Wise & Force barber shop in this city and Miss Mildred Slocum of Blackwater, were married in Boonville, Wednesday, December 31. Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor of the Boonville M. E. Church South, officiated, the ceremony taking place at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. Moritz Schuster and Miss Henrietta Gibson of Blackwater accompanied the bride and groom to Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Birch returned to Marshall Wednesday and will make this city their home.

MANAGERS OF COLONY.

Tuesday Gov. Major appointed the following members of the Board of Managers of the Colony for the Feeble-Minded at Marshall Tuesday afternoon:

Mrs. W. J. Smith of Eolia, term to expire August 21, 1917.

Mrs. W. W. Graves of Jefferson City, term to expire August 21, 1915.

S. P. Houston of Malta Bend, term to expire August 21, 1915.

A. D. Gresham of Platte City, term to expire August 21, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Breeding, bride and groom of a week, left last Monday week for their future home at Arena, Colo., where Mr. Breeding has a position as division road master on the Union Pacific.

It is said that eggs laid on Friday if eaten, will cure the colic. Yes, and at the present price they'll bankrupt you, too.

The farmer who doesn't read a daily paper these days is losing good money every day.

OL HOUSE BURNED.

There was great consternation in our city Tuesday afternoon about 5:30, when the fire alarm was turned in and it was found that the scene of the fire was on the lot of the International Shoe Company's factory. There was relief however, when it was learned that it was a small out building used for an oil house that was burning instead of the factory.

We learn from Supt. Frawley that the loss of the company is slight. In the building was some oil, varnish and scraps of leather, the burning of which filled the air with smoke and fumes.

The fire company was on hands promptly but the oil gave impetus to the flames and the small building was soon consumed. It is not known how the fire originated.

The bride, whose girlhood was spent in this city, has a large circle of friends here who extend congratulations and best wishes. Miss Switzer graduated a few years ago from the academy of Missouri Valley college and has successfully taught in the Saline county schools since that time. She is a most charming and cultured young woman and her pleasing personality wins her a host of friends where ever she goes.

Frank Lisator bought last Saturday of Roy Burgard five acres of land southwest suburbs of the city.

FORD-McAFEE

Wm. Ford and Miss Artie McAfee were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McAfee, four miles south of Shackleford, Sunday, January 4, at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. D. C. Bolton of this city was the officiating minister. While the wedding was a quiet home affair the arrangements were beautiful.

The color scheme was pink and white. In the ceremony room, streamers in these colors artistically arranged formed a pretty canopy for the room while from an arch of cedar hung a floral bell in the prevailing colors. The bride couple stood under the arch during the ceremony. Mr. Bolton leading the way into the room.

The immediate family and a limited number of relatives and neighbors witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is the oldest daughter of the household and not only possesses personal charms, but is gifted in domestic science and will no doubt be a true helpmeet.

Mr. Ford is a young farmer of sterling worth.

After congratulations refreshments were served. The bride and groom left Monday morning for a visit to relatives in Kansas after which they will locate on a farm near Waverly, Carroll county. The young people have hosts of friends who are extending congratulations.
